

I am very concerned at the repercussions of this action. representatives should hold the interests of the people instead of high paying lobbyists.